CHAPTER SIX
Stonewall Family

Stonewall Family

Evelyn (Reinhold) Peterson explained that Frederick Reinhold's children had a cousin who lived in Bureau County most of his / her life by the name of Lind. The cousin's daughter, Emma Lind, married John Stonewall. The Stonewall family was a large family. Evelyn corresponded with Helen Stonewall, Emma's daughter, until Emma Stonewall died. Helen Stonewall married Ralph Perimo, according to Evelyn.

Malm Families

Bengta Henriksdotter's First Family

BENGTA (HENRIKSDOTTER) MALM

Bengta Henriksdotter was born on October 11, 1828[1] in Träne parish at No. 16, Kristianstad County, Sweden and baptized on October 13, 1828.[2] Her father was a tenant farmer named Hindric Nilsson, born December 15, 1794 in Träne parish, Kristianstad County, Sweden.[3] Her mother was Hanna Andersdotter born March 13, 1800 and baptized March 15, 1800 in Lyngsjö parish, Kristianstad County, Sweden.[4] Hindric and his family lived on the farm Träne No. 16.[5]

Hindric Nilsson and Hanna Andersdotter had five children: Elna (later known as Helen Henricks[6] and Elna Henrickson[7]) born March 17, 1831; Anna, born December 7, 1833-died 1837; Nils, born December 2, 1835; Anders, born December 31, 1843 and Bengta.[8]

Bengta Henriksdotter first marriage was to Jöns Andersson in Träne parish, Kristianstad County, Sweden.[17] Jöns was born June 21,[18] 1814 and died June 3, 1852 in Sweden.[19] Jöns and Bengta's banns were published on March 9, 16 and 23 in the book of marriage. They were married July 9, 1845.[20] At the time they were married, Jöns Andersson, age 30, was a farmhand and entering tenant at No.16 in Träne, and Bengta Hindriksdotter, age 17, was a maid at No. 16 in Träne.[21]

Bengta Henriksdotter and Jöns Andersson had two daughters: Anna Jönsdotter born July 31,1847 and Karna Jönsdotter born July 15, 1849.[22] Bengta was 19 when Anna was born and 21 when Karna was born. Anna was five years old when her father died and Karna was three.

Karna Jönsdotter went by the names Carrie Anderson and Carrie Malm in America, and prior to her marriage.[23] Carrie's last name in Sweden was Jönsdotter because her father was Jöns Andersson.[24] Jönsdotter means Karna was the daughter of Jöns. No one knows why she choose Carrie as her first name, but her father's last name was Anderson. She may have changed her last name after arriving in the United States since ö is difficult to pronounce in English.[25]

Carrie was 25 years old, single having never been married and she had no children when she immigrated to the United States on August 19, 1874.[26] She married Charles Reinhold six years later.[27] Carrie Anderson worked as a servant in Sweden before immigrating to America. Carrie moved to Venestad in Träne, Sweden where she worked as a servant at a farmer's house in 1864 when she was 14-15 years old, and one year before her mother immigrated to the United States with her second family.[28] Carrie moved to another farm in Venestad in 1868 when she was about 20-21 were she probably worked as a servant .[29] She moved to the parish Åhus, at farm No. 1 in a place called Yngsjö on October 26, 1871.[30]

Anna Jönsdotter was born in Träne parish, Skäne, Sweden on June 30, 1847.[31] Anna Jönsdotter lived at Djurröd in Träne parish in 1862.[32] She came to America in 1865,[33] although the First Lutheran Church records indicate that Anna came to America in 1878.[34] The 1900 Census indicates Anna and her parents were born in Sweden.[35] First Lutheran Church records identify Anna as Anna Helena Lind.[36]

George P. Lind married Anna Jönsdotter in Bureau County, Illinois on March 9, 1882.[37] George was 33 and Annie was 34.[38] Anna's name on their Marriage Certificate is Annie H. Anderson.[39] Anna and George lived in Wyanet, Illinois at the time they were married and their marriage was the first for both.[40] The witnesses for their marriage were Swan Linn and Christine Anderson.[41] Christine was Anna's future sister-in-law, John Malm's future wife. The Return of Marriage indicates that George was a farmer, his place of birth was Frenaryd, Sweden, and his parents were John Fredrik Lind and Maja Stinn Andersson.[42] The Return of Marriage shows Anna's parents were John Andersson and Bengta Henriksson.[43] The Return says Anna was born in Träne, Sweden.[44]

First Lutheran Church records indicate that George P. Lind's Swedish name was Göran Peter Lind.[45] The Church records say George was born in Frimaryd, Jörköfing, Sweden on November 18, 1848 and came to America in 1870.[46] The 1900 Census indicates that George was born in November 1849; that he immigrated in 1870; and that he and his parents were born in Sweden.[47]

The June 23, 1900 Census shows George and Anna Lind living in Wyanet Township, Bureau County, Illinois.[48] At the time, George Lind was 50 years old and his occupation was a farmer.[49] They rented their farm.[50] Anna was 52 and a house wife.[51] George could read, write and speak English, but Anna could only read and speak English.[52]

The 1900 Census indicates Anna Lind had only two children and they were both living as of June 23, 1900.[53] The Census identified their children as Alvin B. and Nettie O.[54] Records from the First Lutheran Church indicate that George and Anna Lind's son's name was Berthold Albin, born March 20, 1883 in Wyanet, Illinois and their daughter's name was Nelly Olivia, born September 15, 1885 in Wyanet, Illinois.[55] According to the Census, Alvin B. was 17 years old and born in Illinois in November 1883,[56] and Netti O. was 14 and born in Illinois in September 1885.[57] Both children could read, write and speak English.[58] Their nephew, Albert, and George's mother, Mary C., were also living with George and Anna.[59] Albert was 13 and born in Illinois in May 1887.[60] Mary C. was 82 and born October 1817 in Sweden.[61] Her parents were also born in Sweden.[62] Mary immigrated to the United States in 1888 and she had been in America 12 years.[63] She could not speak, read or write English.[64]

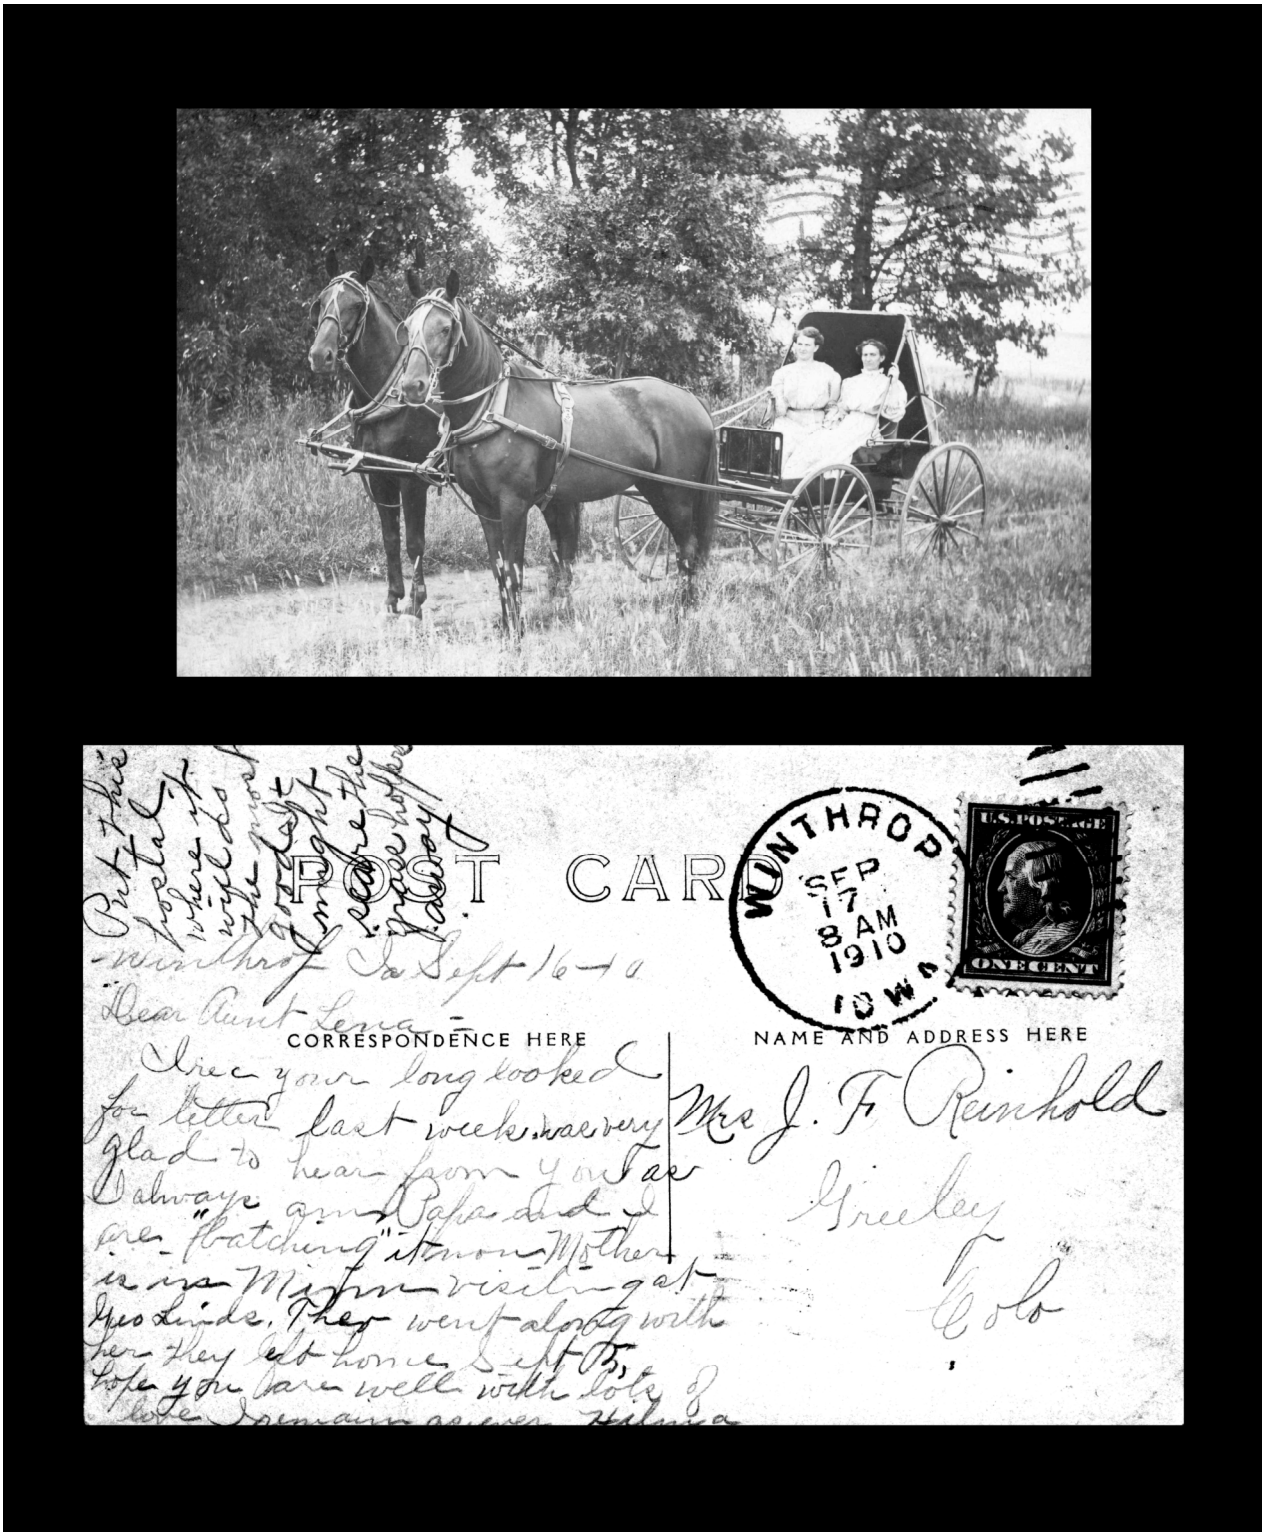

First Lutheran Church records say George and Anna Lind moved to Iowa, but no date was given.[65]

Later, George and Anna Lind lived in lived in Kandiyohi, Minnesota.[66] They must have moved to Minnesota from Bureau County, Illinois.[67] In any case, their children eventually married. Bert Lind had three boys.[68] One child was named Roger and another Jessie Willard.[69] The third boy's name is unknown. Nettle married a man named Jones.[70] They had four children: Francis T. Jones, Robert T. Jones, Charles E. Jones all of Kandiyohi, Minnesota and Marion E. Boey, Atwater, Minnesota.[71] Nettle died prior to her mother's, Anna Lind, death.[72]

Carrie (Anderson) Reinhold and members of her family, including grandchildren visited the George Lind and Bert Lind families in Minnesota. On September 17, 1910, Hilma Reinhold, Carrie's daughter, wrote to her aunt, Lena Reinhold. On the postcard, Hilma wrote, "Papa and I are 'batching' it now.[73] Mother is in Minn visiting at Geo Linds." William Theodore Reinhold and his family visited Bert Lind on his farm in Kandiyohi, Minnesota.[74] Carl Oliver Reinhold slept one night on Bert Lind's lawn when Carl was returning to Wisconsin from work in the North Dakota fields when he was 21.[75]

73 Sandra (Lundquist) Combs explained that "batching it" meant they were on their own. She explained "batching it" was short for bachelor.

Bengta Henriksdotter's Second Family

Bengta (Henriksdotter) Andersson married Ola Jönsson after Jöns Andersson's death.[76] Ola was born April 26, 1826 at Svensköp parish in Malmöhus County.[77] The note in the book of marriages is about the same as Bengta's first marriage.[78] The banns were published for Bengta and Ola on May 22, 29 and on June 5 in 1853.[79] Bengta and Ola were married October 1, 1853.[80] Their bans read as follows:

> farmhand and entering tenant Ola Jönsson at No. 16 in Träne, age 27, and widow Bengta Hindriksdotter at No. 16 in Träne, age 24.[81]

Bengta (Henriksdotter) Andersson and Ola Jönsson had four children born in Sweden: Per Olsson, born August 12, 1853 and baptized August 18, 1853 when Bengta was 25; Jöns Olsson, born April 26, 1855 in Träne when Bengta was 27; Anna Olsdotter, born May 22, 1857 in Träne when Bengta was 29; and Elna Olsdotter, born July 15, 1859 in Träne when Bengta was 31.[82]

Sanders and Ella Malm's Marriage License dated February 24,1881; John Malm and Christine Anderson's Marriage License dated March 13, 1883; Swedish Mission Church Register, p. 19.

Jöns, Anna and Elna immigrated to the United States from Khristianstads County, Sweden with their parents, Ola Jönsson and Bengta Henriksdotter on June 8, 1865.[83] June 8, 1865 is probably the correct date or most correct date. The date the family immigrated does not appear to be settled. According to Åke Kjellqvist, Skänes Genealogical Federation Database, Ola Jönsson and Bengta Henriksdotter and their family left Khristianstads County, Sweden on June 6, 1865 for America. John Malm's Petition for Naturalization indicates June 8, 1865[84] and First Lutheran Church records indicate John immigrated in 1865,[85] but the 1910 Census indicates he immigrated in 1866.[86] Records from First Lutheran Church of Princeton indicate Anna immigrated in 1868.[87] The 1900 Census indicates Anna Lundquist immigrated to American in 1870, and that she and her parents came from Sweden.[88] The 1920 Census indicates Anna immigrated in 1864, and she and her parents came from Sweden.[89] The 1910 Census indicates Anna Lundquist immigrated in 1868, that she and her parents were from Sweden, and they spoke Swedish.[90] The Swedish Mission Church Register indicates that Ellen Malm immigrated from Sweden in 1863.[91]

Prior to immigrating to the United States, Ola Jönsson and Bengta Henriksdotter's family lived in house No. 16 in Träne.[92] Ola Jönsson was 39, Bengta was 36, Jöns Olsson was 10, Anna Olsdottter was 8 and Elna Olsdotter was 5.[93] Upon arriving in America, they lived in Chicago for three years before moving to Bureau County, Illinois,[94] although there is no reference or listing for this family in the Chicago City Directories, 1871 Census Edition, 1870 Federal Census for Chicago or the catalog of listing of the Chicago Historical Society.[95]

No one knows why Bengta (Henriksdotter) Andersson and Ola Jönsson started using Malm as their last name. It appears they started using the name only after immigrating to the United States.[96] Possibly, Ola Jönsson took the name of Malmöhus County, Sweden were he was born, lived and married Bengta. Kenneth Larsson does not think Ola thought of Malmöhus County being the place he came from. Mr. Larsson said, "I'm sure they used the name Malm for the same reason as I have said earlier – it was easier to use in the US. Malm also means ore, a rather common Swedish name."

96 Sandra (Lundquist) Combs believes they used the Malm name while still in Sweden.

When John Malm filed his Petition for Naturalization on November 7, 1876, he used the name John Malm, not Jöns Olsson or Jöns Olsson Malm.[97] John was 21 at the time, lived in the United States for eleven years, and signed his Petition as John Malm using an X as his mark.[98] Further, John, Anna and Elna all signed their marriage certificates using Malm as their last names.[99]

Carol Shipp said:

> You are correct about where the name Malm came from. This was quite common to do. It was also common to change your last name, especially if it was a common one, when you first arrived. I have looked at many "remission" documents from First Lutheran. The minister in Sweden put the person's old name and the one from First Lutheran put the new surname above the old one on these documents. There is no remission document for Ola or Bengta. If Bengta joined 13 years after leaving Sweden it wouldn't mean anything. These documents stated you were in good standing with the church when you left Sweden.

In any case, Ola Jönsson used several names in the United States including Ola Jönsson, Ola Malm and Olof Malm.

Olof Malm purchased farm land in Bureau County for $575 in cash on December 21, 1873.[100] The property is identified as being situated in Princeton in the County of Bureau to wit: The North West quarter of the South East quarter of Section Eighteen in Township Sixteen North, Range Nine, East of the Fourth Principal Meridian, except for portions owned by others.[101] When Olof Malm purchased the land, he was living in Princeton, Illinois.[102]

Andrew and Anna Lundquist purchased farm land from Olof Malm and Bjauta Malm for $1,362.50 on October 24, 1876.[103] Bjauta is probably Bengta spelled incorrectly on the deed and Olof Malm is Ola Malm. At the time of sale, Olof and Bengta Malm were married and living in Princeton, Illinois.[104] The land they sold was the same property Olof Malm purchased on December 12, 1873 and was identified as the North West quarter of the South East quarter of Section Eighteen in Township Sixteen North of Range Nine, East of the Fourth Principal Meridian, except for various portions owned by others.[105]

Olof Malm became a citizen on June 6, 1879.[106] It is not certain that the Olof Malm who became a citizen on June 6, 1879 is the same Ola Jönsson / Olof Malm who married Bengta Malm, though it appears quite likely that he is because of the jurisdiction, name, time period, and Dr. August Henry Malm's Certificate of Death and Record of Funeral, which indicate that Dr. Malm's father was Olof Malm.[107] However, an Olof Johnsson became a citizen of the United States on October 1, 1860 at the Bureau County Courthouse.[108] It is not known whether that Olof Johonson is the same Ola Jönsson / Olof Malm who married Bengta and is the same Oloff Malm that became a United States citizen on June 6, 1879 at the Bureau County Courthouse. It is unlikely that he is the same Olof Malm who married Bengta since Ola Jönsson / Olof Malm and Bengta Hendriksdotter probablly immigrated to the United States on June 8, 1865.

No one knows what happened to Bengta's husband, Ola Jönsson / Olof Malm. According to Sandra (Lundquist) Combs, there is a reference to Ola Jönsson in one of her Aunt's notes, which reads as follows:

End of Civil War – Great Grandparents
Mr. & Mrs. Malm
Disappeared Princeton

Sandra (Lundquist) Combs' aunt was Rachel (Lundquist) LeVasseur, and Rachel's notes seem to indicate that Ola Jönsson disappeared by the end, or at end of the Civil War (1865). Rachel's notes indicate that Bengta was living in Princeton, Illinois by or at the end of the Civil War. These notes are probably not exactly correct because August Henry Malm was born August 20, 1869, roughly four years after the Civil War ended, Olof Malm purchased farm land on December 21, 1873,[109] sold the same land on October 24, 1876 to Andrew and Anna Lundquist while married to Bengta[110] and became a citizen on June 6, 1879[111] all in Bureau County.

In any case, the 1880 Census for Manlius Township, Bureau County, Illinois shows Bengta Malm living with her daughter, Carrie Reinhold, and Carrie's husband, Charles Reinhold.[112] The Census shows that Charles was a farmer, age 27 and Carrie was a housewife, age 28. Bengta Malm is identified as Rebecca Malm, mother-in-law, age 53, and a widow.[113] It appears Bengta Malm's husband, Ola Jönsson / Olof Malm died between October 24, 1876 and when the 1880 Census was taken, or possibly, he died between June 6, 1879 and when the 1880 Census was taken.

The 1880 Census for Princeton, Bureau County, indicates August Henry Malm, age 12 was living with his sister and her husband, Andrew and Anna Lundquist.[114] According to the Census, August was attending school.[115] The Census shows that August was born in Illinois and his parents were born in Sweden.[116] It is interesting that August Malm was not living with his mother, Bengta Malm in 1880.

Carol Shipp strongly feels that Ola Jönsson/Malm probably died in Chicago and that Bengta (Henriksdotter) (Andersson) Jönsson/Malm moved shortly after his death back to Bureau County where her sister resided. She is convinced that Ola Jönsson / Malm never was a member of First Lutheran or Swedish Mission because she checked both churchs' records and he is not in any of their records.[117]

Carol Shipp checked various other records in Bureau County, Illinois for evidence of Ola Jönsson / Malm's death, but failed to find any.[118] She did not find probate records or a death certificate for him.[119] The index for the Bureau County Republican failed to mention his death as well as any cemetery records."[120] Carol failed to find Ola Jönsson / Malm on the Bureau County Genealogical Society's index.[121] Carol also did not find him when she checked all of Illinois for the 1880 Census, so Carol thinks Ola Jönsson / Malm died before 1880 or was not living in Bureau County by 1880,[122] which would explain why August Malm was living with his sister in Princeton in 1880 and August's mother, Bengta Malm, was living with the Charles Reinhold family in 1880.

Bengta (Henriksdotter) Malm

Bengta Henriksdotter (Swedish Name) aka Bengta Anderson, Bengta Henrick, Bengta Henrksson, Rebecca Malm, Bengta Jönsson and Bengta Malm

Bengta Malm Was Carrie (Anderson) Reinhold's Mother.

The First Lutheran Church's Church Register indicates that Bengta Malm joined the Church on May 15, 1881.[123] The Church's Death Record shows Bengta's name as Enkan Bengta Malm and that she died in Wyanet, Illinois on January 9, 1887.[124]

Bengta Malm's Death Record
First Lutheran Church, Princeton, Illinois.

Kenneth Larsson explained that the word "Enkan" is the old spelling of "änkan," the Swedish word for widow.[125] Carol Shipp failed to find Bengta in the records for the Wyanet Lutheran Church.[126] Carol went on to say, "It's hard to believe she arrived in 1868 and didn't join a church until 1881 - 13 years later,"[127] especially considering that her daughter, Ellen Malm, joined the Swedish Mission Church in 1877 in Princeton.[128]

Bengta (Henriksdotter) (Andersson) (Jönsson) Malm is buried in Section 26, Lot 13, Grave 1 in the Oakland Cemetery, Princeton, Illinois next to her son, Dr. August Henry Malm.[129] Bengta Malm is identified in the Oakland Cemetery records as Mrs. Malm.[130] Her grave marker originally had only the word "Grandmother" and the dates 1829 - 1887 inscribed on the stone. 1829 is the wrong birth date, but 1887 is the correct death date. Sandra (Lundquist) Combs had Bengta's grave marker reinscribed to include her name, namely Bengta Malm.

Bengta Henriksdotter's Children From Her Second Family

Bengta (Henriksdotter) Andersson and Ola Jönsson / Malm had four children born in Sweden. The children were Per Olsson, Jöns Olsson, Anna Olsdotter and Elna Olsdotter.[131]

Per Olsson

In 1867, Per Olsson was living in Djurröd, Träne parish.[132] He never immigrated to the United States. Per would have been twelve when his parents immigrated to the United States. According to August Henry Malm's Probate Records, Bengta's second family consisted of Anna, Ellen, John and August Henry Malm.[133] It appears that Clarence E. Lundquist, administrator of Dr. Malm's estate, did not know about Per Olsson.

John Malm

John Malm was born Jöns Olsson on April 26, 1855 in Kristianstad, Sweden.[134] The 1920 Census indicates he was born in 1858 and his obituary indicates he was born in 1857.[135] John was confirmed in the First Lutheran Church, Princeton, Illinois on March 25, 1874 and left the First Lutheran Church in 1881.[136]

John filed his Petition for Naturalization in October 1876 and was naturalized on November 7, 1876.[137] The 1920 Census indicates John Malm was naturalized in 1885,[138] but the 1910 Census indicates he was not naturalized.[139]

The 1880 Census indicates John Malm was 25 and working as a farm laborer.[140] The Census indicates John and his parents were born in Sweden and their mother tongue was Swedish.[141]

John married Christine Anderson in Princeton, Illinois on March 13, 1883.[142] He was 27 and Christine was 21.[143] Their Return of Marriage indicates both resided in Princeton, Illinois, their marriage was the first for both and John's occupation was farming.[144] The Return of Marriage indicates John was born in Träne, Sweden and his parent's names were Ola Malm and Bengta Henrick.[145] Christine's place of birth is shown as Bårby, Sweden, and her parents were identified as Per Anderson and Anna Brita Johnson.[146] The 1910 Census indicates Christine immigrated to the United States in 1885.[147] The 1910 and 1920 Censuses indicate Christine was born in 1855, Christine and her parents were born in Sweden, and their mother tongue was Swedish.

John and Christine Malm had six children.[148] All were living as of April 22, 1910.[149] They were: Reuben R., John H., Helen, Maude E., Myrtle E. and Clarence E.[150] In 1910, only Helen, age 21, born in Illinois and Myrtle, age 15 born in Illinois were living with their parents.[151] By 1920, no one was living with John and Christine.[152]

LOCAL FARMER IS FOUND DEAD IN HAY MOWN

Inquest Held to Inquire into Death of John Malm Some Time Last Wednesday.

John Malm, well known Princeton township farmer, was found dead in the hay-mown on his farm on "lover's lane" a short distance south of Princeton hill about 6:30 o'clock Wednesday evening. A coroner's jury impaneled to conduct an inquest into the cause of death, found that Mr. Malm died as the result of carbolic acid, taken internally while in a fit of despondency. Those on the jury were: Alich Bradley, Clarence Raker, Wood Reynolds, Andrew Yepsen, Robert L. Russell and Fred Lorenzen.

Witnesses at the inquest testified that Mr. Malm had appeared to be in fairly good health until three weeks ago, when he showed signs of being extremely nervous. Mrs. Malm has been confined to her home for a year with illness, and the husband was worried about her condition. Dr. O. J. Flint talked with the deceased a few days ago when he called to see Mrs. Malm, and he states that Mr. Malm seemed to be suffering from nervous exhaustion at the time. This theory is borne out by the statements of Alich Bradley, Peter J. Maas and JJohn Stoner, neighbors who had noted Mr. Malm's nervous state.

Mr. Bradley stayed at the Malm home Tuesday night to help care for Mrs. Malm. He said that Mr. Malm seemed all right when he left the place at six o'clock Wednesday morning. Miss Myrtle E. Malm, a daughter, said she saw her father last at about 1:30 in the afternoon, when he was on the porch sweeping snow. When he did not return to the house at five o'clock, she became alarmed and called several of the neighbors. A search was started and the body was found in the hay-mown.

Mr. Malm was 69 years of age, and would have been 70 next April. He was born in Sweden and came here when 9 years of age and has lived here since. His family consists of a wife and six children. The children are: Clarence E., Maude E., Mrs. Fred Lorenzen, Reuben R., John H., and Myrtle E.

JOHN MALM'S DEATH[163]

John Malm's occupations were farm laborer,[153] teamster[154] and farmer.[155] Christina was a housewife.[156] John and Christine rented their home in 1910, but by 1920, they owned their home free of a mortgage.[157] The 1910 Census indicates John and Christine could read, but not write.[158] The 1920 Census indicates John could not read or write, and Christine could read, but not write.[159] The 1910 and 1920 Census indicate John and Christine could speak English.[160]

John and Christine Malm died in 1926 in Princeton, Illinois and are buried in Lot 9, Block 52, Oakland Cemetery, Princeton, Illinois.[161] The Bureau County Record published an article on John Malm's death on Wednesday, February 3, 1926.[162]

Anna Malm

Anna Malm was born Anna Olsdottter on May 22, 1857 in Kristianstad, Sweden.[164] The records from the First Lutheran Church, Princeton, Illinois indicate she was born in Lekäsa.[165] The 1900 and 1910 Censuses indicate that Anna was born in 1858.The 1920 Census indicates that she was born in 1859. The 1880, 1900, 1910 and 1920 Censuses all show that Anna and her parents were born in Sweden.

Anna immigrated with her parents and siblings to the United States on June 8, 1865,[166] although the 1900 Census indicates that she immigrated in 1870, 1910 Census indicates that she immigrated in 1868 and 1920 Census indicates that she immigrated in 1864.[167] Records from First Lutheran Church of Princeton indicate that she immigrated in 1868.[168] After arriving in American, Anna lived the remainder of her life in Princeton, with the exception of a three year residence in Chicago.[169]

Anna was confirmed at the First Lutheran Church in Princeton in 1873.[170] Anna Malm married Andrew Lundquist in Bureau County, Illinois on March 27, 1877.[171] Anna was 20 and Andrew was 35.[172] Andrew signed the marriage license with an X, his mark.[173] J. Wikstrand was the minister.[174] Anna and Andrew Lundquist were witnesses for Charles Reinhold and Carrie Anderson's marriage.[175]

The First Lutheran Church's Church Registries identify Andrew and Anna Lundquist's children as Carl August, Clarence Edward, Emma Cecilia, Ella Darline, Nora Blanch, Florence Ruth and Harry Newton all of whom were born in Princeton, Illinois.[180] The children's dates of birth differ depending on the particular Church Register one looks at.[181] Anna Lundquist's Petition of Letters For Administration in Andrew's Estate identifies the following children, Carl A., Clarence E., Emma C., Ella D., Nora B., Effa A., Florence R., Harry N. and Margorie E.[182] It appears Harry transferred his ownership interest in the property on March 1, 1919[183] to the same person identified in the July 24, 1919 Deed that transferred title for land owned by Anna Lundquist and her children to John Masters. The Deed identifies eight of Anna and Andrew Lundquist's nine children. All the children identified in the July 24, 1919 Deed are identified in Anna's Petition of Letters For Administration in Andrew's Estate, except for Harry N. whose name is missing from the Deed.[184] Harry was a Pvt Lcl in Company "B" 319th Engineers when he signed the Deed on March 1, 1919.

Andrew and Anna Lundquist purchased farm land from Olof Malm and Bjauta Malm for $1,362.50 on October 24, 1876.[185] (Bjauta is most likely Bengta misspelled.) The land was identified as the North West quarter of the South East quarter of Section Eighteen in Township sixteen North of Range Nine, East of the Fourth Principal Meridian, except for various portions owned by others.[186] Andrew and Anna took out a mortgage on January 17, 1896 on their property in the amount of $100 payable in five $20 payments with each payment covered by a separate note.[187] A $20 payment was due in 1897, 1898, 1899 1900 and 1901.[188]

First Annual Reunion
Lundquist-Malm Group

Clarence E. Lundquist, chairman, presided over the first annual reunion of the Lundquist-Malm families held Sunday at Alexander Park. The association later chose a president, Harry L. Erickson and decided on Labor Day in 1934 as the date for the next reunion.

Telegrams from Mrs. Nora Whisman, Mrs. Effie Whisman and Miss Ruth Lundquist, of Los Angeles, Cal., daughters of Mrs. Anna Lundquist, were read during the afternoon. Mrs. Lundquist was the eldest relative present. She came to Princeton on August 25, 1865 and has lived here since that time. Mrs. Lundquist, who enjoys excellent health was one of the most enthusiastic advocates of organizing for annual reunions. The youngest member present was Roland, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Earnest, of Princeton.

Relatives attending were: Mrs. Anna Lundquist, Freda and Richard Malm, Pearl Beechner, Laura Erickson, Maude Malm, Mrs. Anna Josephson, Rachel, Hulda and Charles A. Lundquist-Malm Family Reunion[207]
January 8, 1953.

The 1880 Census shows Andrew and Anna Lundquist living in Princeton, Illinois.[189] Andrew was 38 and Anna was 23.[190] Andrew's occupation is listed as a farmer and Anna's is keeping house.[191] The Census indicates Andrew, Anna and their parents were born in Sweden.[192] By the time the Census was taken, Andrew and Anna had two sons, Carl, age 2 and Clarence age 4 months.[193] Both children were born in Illinois.[194] Anna's brother, August Henry Malm, age 12 was also living with them.[195] The Census shows that August was born in Illinois and his parents were born in Sweden.[196]

Andrew was naturalized on April 19, 1884 in Princeton, Illinois.[197]

In addition to their farm land, Andrew and Anna Lundquist rented farm land from Eunice Lovejoy, the widow of the famous abolitionist, Owen Lovejoy, during the 1896 farming season.[198] Eunice Lovejoy filed a claim in Andrew Lundquist's estate for rent due on approximately 56 acres of farm land for the 1896 season in the amount of $278.[199] Owen and Eunice Lovejoy's son was Owen G. Lovejoy and his name also appears on Eunice Lovejoy's claim.[200]

Andrew Lundquist was born October 1, 1842 in Leká or Skaraborg[201] Sweden and died intestate on December 28, 1896 in Princeton.[202] He died of grip[203] and is buried in Section 26, Lot 13, Grave 5 next to his wife, Anna, in the Oakland Cemetery, Princeton, Illinois.[204] No obituary was published for Andrew Lundquist, just a very small "death notice."[205] His date of birth and death are noted on his grave marker in the Oakland Cemetery.[206]

IN COUNTY COURT IN PROBATE, January TERM, A. D. 1897

Owen G. Lavejoy being duly sworn, on oath says that he is the agent of and transacts her business for Eunice S. Lavejoy and that the annexed account against the estate of Andrew Lanquist deceased, amounting to the sum of two hundred and Eighty seven Dollars and ... Cents, is just, after allowing all just credits, and is now due to said Eunice S. Lavejoy and unpaid.

Owen G. Lavejoy

ESTATE OF Andrew Lanquist DECEASED.

To Eunice S. Lavejoy Dr.

To rental of 100 13/20 acres of farm land for season of 1896 @ $5.00 per acre, due January 1st 1897 $ 278.00

For value received the above claim against the Estate of Andrew Lanquist is hereby assigned to Anna Lanquist, widow of said Andrew. Dated Jan. 13 1897
Eunice S. Lavejoy by Owen G. Lavejoy her agent.

Andrew Lundquist's wife, Anna Lundquist, was appointed administrator of his estate.[208] Anna and their nine children are identified as surviving him.[209] There is no proof of heirship in his probate packet.[210] The Administrator's Report covering the period February 9, 1897 to August 2, 1902 indicates the personal property in Andrew's Estate was valued at $2,039.57.[211] Anna was allowed to keep personal property valued at $1,363.00.[212] The remaining property in Andrew's Estate was sold for $686.17 and the proceeds were used to pay claims against the estate.[213]

An inventory filed in Andrew Lundquist's estate proceedings lists 52¾ acres of land in Bureau County, Illinois worth $3,000, which he owned when he died.[214] The inventory indicates the property was security for a $2,000 mortgage at 6% interest held by D. H. Smith.[215] It is unclear whether Anna Lundquist received the property at the conclusion of Andrew's Estate proceedings.[216] There is no mention of how the mortgage was handled either. She most likely received the property because on July 24, 1919, Anna Lundquist and eight of her nine children conveyed their interest in the same North West Quarter of the South East Quarter of Section 18, except for certain portions owed by others, Bureau County, Illinois for $7,249.60, which Andrew and Anna owned prior to Andrew's death.[217]

By 1900, Anna Lundquist had nine children, all were living and all were living at home with Anna.[218] Anna and Andrew's last child was born in July1896.[219] The child was about six months old when Andrew died.[220] The 1900 Census identified Anna as age 42 and head of house.[221] The Census indicates Anna had no occupation, but she could read, write and speak English.[222] The 1900 Census indicates Anna's older children, Carl, age 22, Clarence, age 20 and Emma, age 17 were helping support their mother and other siblings.[223] Carl and Clarence worked as farmers, and Emma worked as a dressmaker.[224] The other children went to school, except for Marjorie who was three years old.[225] The Census indicates that all her children were born in Illinois.[226]

Funeral Services Today for Mrs. Lundquist

Funeral services for Mrs. Anna Lundquist will be held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the First Lutheran Church, preceded by a short family service at 1:30, at the residence on West Putnam Street. Rev. E. T. Peters will officiate.

Anna Malm was born May 22, 1857, in Skone, Sweden, and came August 25, 1865, to America, establishing her residence at that time in Princeton. The remainder of her life was spent there, with the exception of three years of residence in Chicago.

She was married March 29, 1877 to Andrew Lundquist, and they were the parents of nine children. Mrs. Lundquist was preceded in death by her husband in 1896, her eldest son, Paul, in 1929, and her bother, Dr. A. H. Malm in 1933.

Surviving relatives are the eight children, Clarence Lundquist of Tiskilwa, Mrs. Emma Nelson of Chicago, Mrs. Ella Nordholm of Princeton, Mrs. Nora Whisman and Mrs. Effie Whisman and Ruth Lundquist of Los Angeles, Cal., Newton Lundquist of Princeton, and Miss Ethel Lundquist of Los Angeles, Cal., four grandchildren; one cousin, Professor I. M. Anderson of Augustana College at Rock Island.

Mrs. Lundquist had been a member of the First Lutheran Church in this city since her confirmation in 1873, and was faithful in attendance there while her health permitted. She passed away Monday evening at 11:45 o'clock, at the age of 78 years, 7 months and 1 day.

Anna (Malm) Lundquist's Obituary
December 26, 1935.

By 1910, only four children were living with Anna Lundquist.[227] The 1910 Census indicates Anna was 51 years old, a widow and head of household.[228] She did not have an occupation, but she did own her home and had a mortgage on the house.[229] Effie, age 21, Ruth, age 19, Newton age 16 and Ethel age 13 were living with Anna.[230] Effie worked as a telephone operator; Ruth was a dressmaker; and Newton was a farm laborer.[231] Ethel was probably going to school.[232]

In 1914, Anna's daughters, Effie A., Ethel and Ruth F. Lundquist, were living with her.[233] Anna is listed in 1929 Princeton City Directory as Lundquist, Anna (Wid Andrew) h 411 W. Putnam.[234] Newton Lundquist, farmer, was listed as living with Anna.[235]

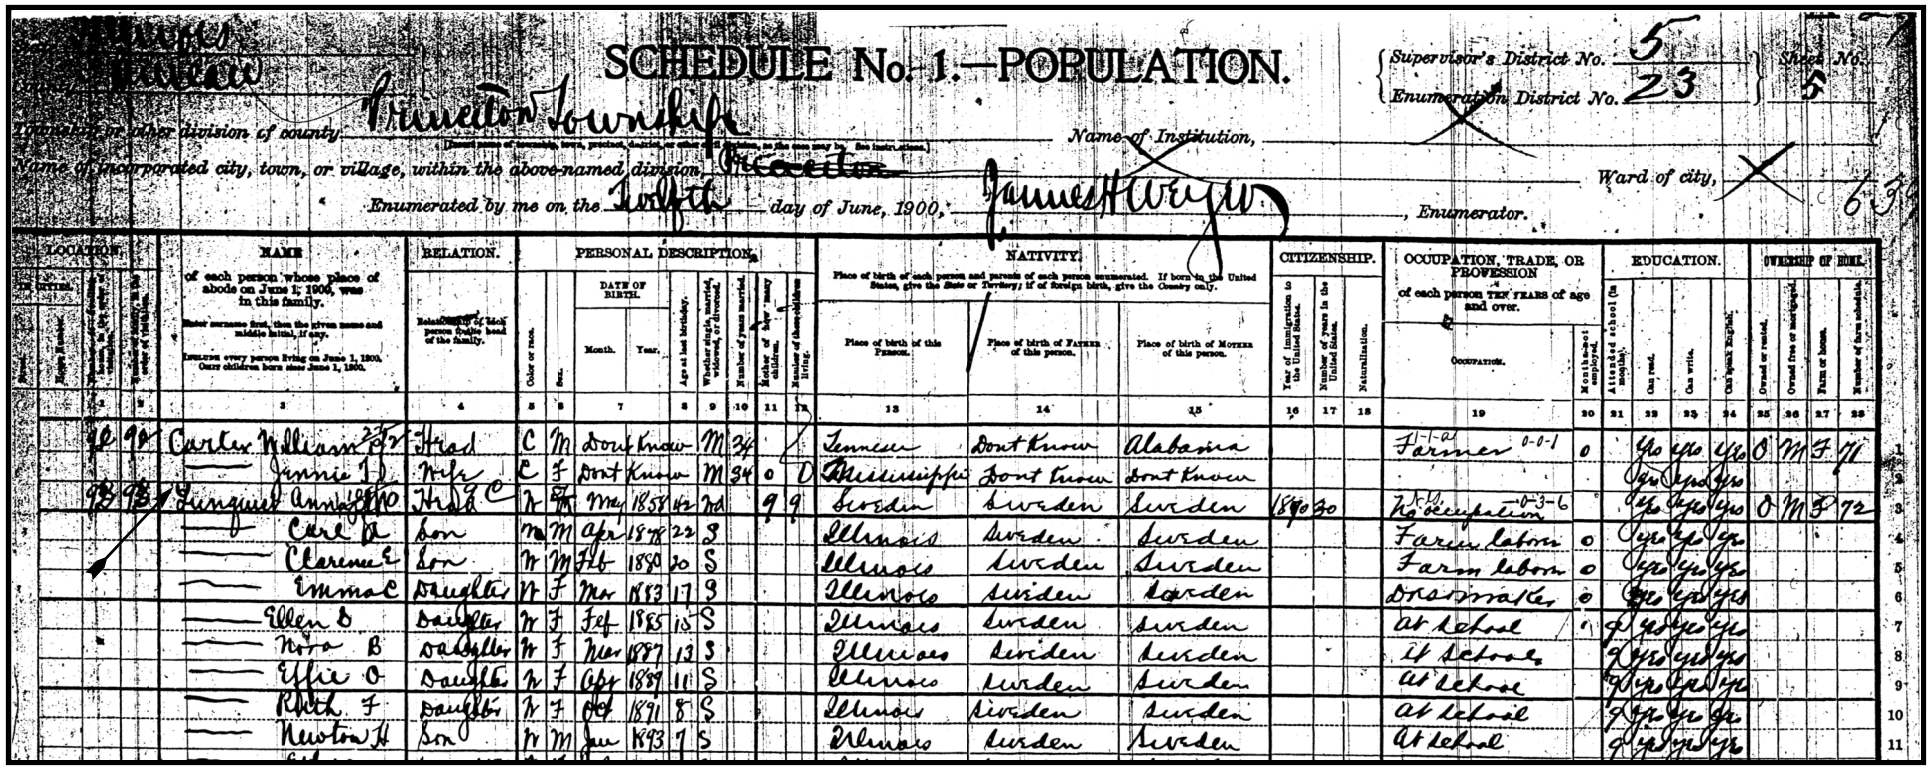

By 1920, only Effie was living with Anna.[236] Anna was 62 years old and head of household. Effie was 30 and single.[237] Effie was still working as a telephone operator.[238] Anna Lundquist lived at 411 W. Putnam Street, Princeton, Illinois.[239] She is listed in the 1914, 1916 and 1933 Princeton City Directories as Lundquist, Anna (wid Andrew) r 411 w Putnam.[240]

Anna Lundquist died December 23, 1935 and is buried in Section 26, Lot 13, Grave 4, next to her husband in the Oakland Cemetery, Princeton, Illinois.[241] She died from a cerebral hemorrhage and arteriosclerosis.[242] She was 78 years, seven months and one day old when she died.[243] Her obituary says she was preceded in death by her husband in 1896, her eldest son, Paul in 1929, and her brother, Dr. A. H. Malm in 1933.[244] According to Sandra (Lundquist) Combs, there was no child named Paul as far as she knows. Sandy could not find a death certificate for either Paul or Carl in 1929 at the Princeton, Bureau County Courthouse.

At the time of Anna Lundquist's death, her surviving relatives were eight children, Clarence Lundquist of Tiskilwa; Emma Nelson of Chicago; Ella Nordholm of Princeton; Nora Whisman, Effie Whisman and Ruth Lundquist of Los Angeles, California; Newton Lundquist of Princeton; and Ethel Lundquist of Los Angeles, California; four grandchildren; one cousin, Professor Isaac Morene Anderson of Augustana College at Rock Island, Illinois.[245]

Ella Malm Married Andrew Sanders.

Ella And Andrew Sanders
March 23, 1881.

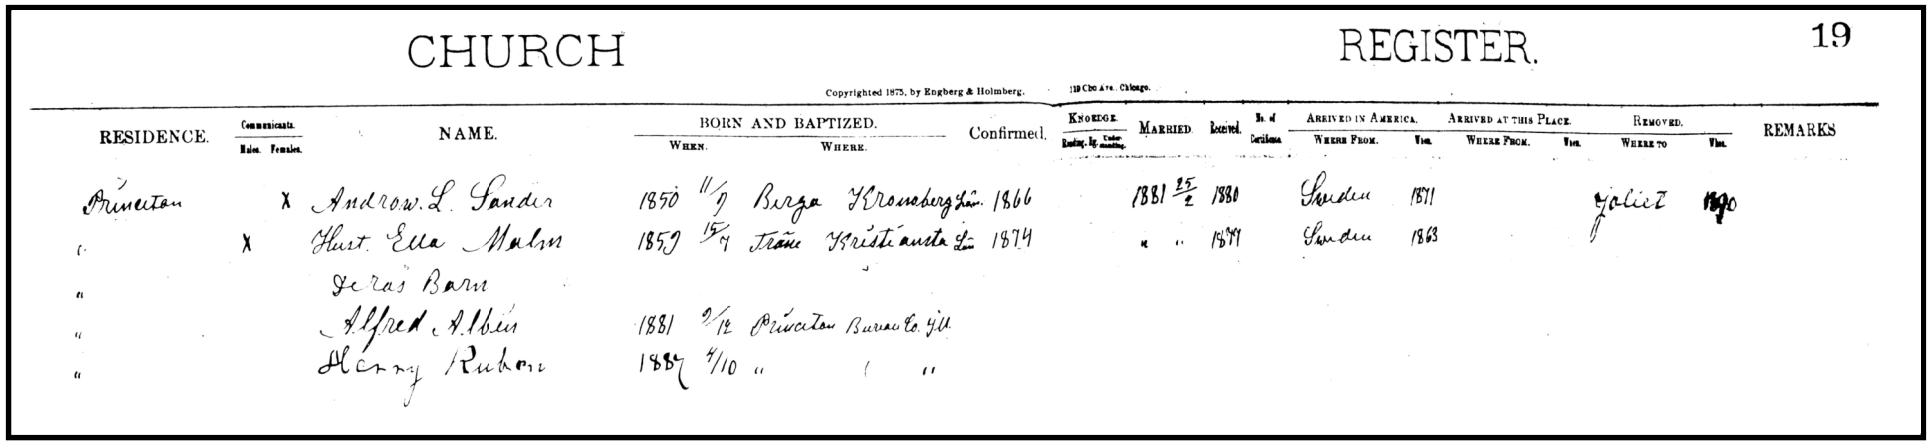

Ellen Malm was born Elna Olsdotter on July 15, 1859 in Kristianstad, Sweden.[250] Ellen appears on the 1880 Census as Ella Malm.[251] She is identified as 20 years old and her occupation is listed as servant.[252] The Census indicates that Ellen and her parents were born in Sweden.[253] Swedish Mission Church records identify Ellen Malm as "Hust" Ella Malm and indicate she was born July 15, 1859 in Träne, Kristianstad Län, Sweden and confirmed in 1874.[254] The Church records indicate that Ellen Malm immigrated from Sweden in 1863 and was received into the Church in 1877.[255]

Andrew Sanders appears on the 1880 Census.[256] He was 29 and his occupation is identified as "works on farm."[257] The Census indicates Andrew and his parents were born in Sweden.[258] Swedish Mission Church records identify Andrew as Androw L. Sanders and indicate he was born July 11, 1850 in Berga, Kronober, Kristianstad Län, Sweden and confirmed in 1866.[259] The Church records indicate that Andrew immigrated from Sweden in 1871 and was received into the Church in 1880.[260]

Ellen Malm married Andrew L. Sanders on February 24, 1881.[261] Andrew was 30 years old and Ellen Malm was 21.[262] They were married in Princeton and their marriage was the first for both.[263] Their Return of Marriage indicates Andrew was born in Sweden and his parent's names were L. Sanders and Anna Johnson.[264] Andrew's occupation is shown as farming.[265] Ellen's full name is identified on their Return of Marriage as Ella Malm and she signed their marriage certificate as Ella Malm.[266] Their Return of Marriage states that Ellen was born in Sweden, and her parents are identified as O. Malm and Bengta Henrikson.[267]

Jan. 6, 1904 FULTON CO. DEMOCRAT
Chicago Fire

588 Persons Lose Their Lives in Burning of Chicago Iroquois theater. The finest theater in America on the afternoon of Dec. 30th, was filled with 2,000 of the happiest people–mostly ladies and children–in all the city. How clean and beautiful that marble temple! How delicious the music!. In an interlude, amidst the soft buzz of 2,000 voices, a tiny ribbon of flame darts up amidst the stage setting. There is a sudden cry of fear. In a moment 2,000 big and little people are wild to escape from the hell of fire that sweeps the great stage. Billows of flame, death's red banners, sweep the balconies, and little children sit there–dead! Beneath the balconies and at every exit are piles of dead!. In the near-by alley are piles of dead!.

In five minutes–maybe in two minues from that tiny ribbon of flame–588 women and children are dead!

Chicago officials have closed all the theaters and some 400 similar amusement halls until every one is safeguarded from fire under drastic ordinances. There is not a place of amusement open in the city. All over the country and in Europe extraordinary precautions are being taken to prevent a repetition of the Iroquois fire.

1904 CHICAGO FIRE[280]

Swedish Mission Church records identify Andrew and Ellen Sanders' children as Alfred Alben and Henry Ruben.[269] Church records indicate Alfred was born December 9, 1881 in Princeton and Henry was born October 4, 1887 in Princeton.[270] The Church records have another notation, which looks like a name of a child: "Leras Barn," but there is no other information associated with the notation.[271] According to the Church's record, Andrew and Ellen were living in Princeton at the time they were married and when their children were born.[272]

According to August H. Malm's Proof of Heirship, Andrew and Ellen Sanders had two children: Reuben and Alfred Sanders.[273] Alfred Sanders and his wife had no children.[274] Reuben Sanders and his wife had two children: Florence Maniar Sanders and Roger Harley Sanders, both lived at 5021 North Damen Ave., Chicago, Illinois.[275] Neither Alfred nor Reuben Sanders were married in Bureau County.[276]

The Swedish Mission Church record show Andrew and Ellen moved to Joliet, Illinois in 1890.[277] Andrew and Ellen Sanders are buried in Lot 20, Block 57 of Oakland Cemetery, Princeton, Illinois.[278] Andrew Sanders died in 1925 in Princeton and Ellen Sanders died in 1927 in Richwood.[279]

According to Rachel (Lundquist) LeVasseur's notes, Anna and Ella Malm were very lucky to have not attended a play at the Iroquois movie theater in Chicago on January 6, 1904. Rachel's notes read as follows:

> The theater fire – year ?
> Grandmother Lundquist and Ellen Sanders (her sister) were in Chicago. Grandmom was living in Chicago at the time.
> Aunt Ellen was visiting with Al & Reuben & Florence. They were planning to take the Kids (Ethel - -) to the Iroquois theater to see "The Blue Bird" (a children's play). Ticket [sic] were sold out, so they missed the performance. That was the day a terrible fire broke out trapping hundreds of children and their parents. The loss of lives was enormous – the infamous Iroquois fire.

Rachel's grandmother was Anna (Malm) Lundquist.

Dr. August Henry Malm

AUGUST HENRY MALM, M. D.

Dr. August Henry Malm, engaged in the practice of medicine in Princeton, is one of Bureau county's native sons, his birth having occurred in Princeton township on the 20th of August, 1868. He acquired his education in the district schools and the city schools of Princeton and received his professional training in Barnes University, at St. Louis, Missouri, from which he was graduated on the completion of a thorough course in medicine in the class of 1895. He supplemented his theoretical training by practical experience, covering a year's practice in St. Louis city hospital, after which he located at Mineral, Bureau county. Later he removed to Stark county, where he remained four years, when, seeking a still broader field of labor, he came to Princeton in 1901 and opened his office. Here he has enjoyed a good practice, being recognized as an able and conscientious physician, who is continually broadening his knowledge and promoting his efficiency through reading and investigation. He thus keeps in touch with the onward march of the profession.

In 1904 Dr. Malm was elected to the office of county coroner, which position he is still filling. Fraternally he is connected with the Modern Woodmen and other organizations. His religious faith is indicated by his membership in the Presbyterian church, and in the line of his profession he is identified with the County Medical Society. He is well known in Bureau county, where almost his entire life has been passed, and many friends entertain for him warm regard because of his personal as well as professional worth.

August Henry Malm's Biographical Sketch[292]

Bengta Malm gave birth to August Henry Malm in Princeton, Illinois on August 20, 1869[281] when Bengta was 41. August Henry joined The First Lutheran Church in 1883,[282] probably when he was confirmed.[283] He left the church "Utesluten," but the date is not stated and the two words following the word "Utesluten" could not be translated.[284] Carol Shipp did not find a baptismal record for August Henry Malm, although she searched years before he was born to many years after.

August was Bengta[285] and Ola's fifth and youngest child. No record has be found indicating Dr. Malm's father was Ola Jönsson/Olof Malm / Ola Malm other than the Coroner's Certificate of Death and Funeral Record, which indicate August Henry Malm's father was Olof Malm.[286] Dr. Malm's nephew, Newton Lundquist, gave the information for the Certificate of Death and Record of Funeral.[287] Still, Newton did not know Dr. Malm's mother's name[288] and Newton's mother, Anna Lundquist, would have had to give Newton the information regarding Dr. Malm. As a result, a question arises regarding why Newton did not know his grandmother's name, and thereby, the name of Dr. Malm's mother. Dr. Malm's obituaries omit the names of Dr. Malm's parents.[289]

Dr. Malm never married or served in the military.[290] He died of a heart attack on December 13, 1933 in Princeton, Illinois and is buried in Section 26, Lot 13, Grave No. 3, next to his mother, in the Oakland Cemetery, Princeton, Illinois.[291]

Dr. Malm's obituaries describe Dr. Malm's life in some detail. His obituary published in the Bureau County Tribune[296] reads as follows:

> August Henry Malm was born in Princeton Township August 20, 1868 and was suddenly called away by death on December 13 at an age of sixty-three years, three months and twenty-three days. He was baptized and confirmed in the First Lutheran Church of Princeton. After receiving his elementary education, he was employed by Dr. Thompson, who influenced him to take up the study of medicine. As a young man he attended Barnes university [sic] in St. Louis, Mo., from which institution he was graduated in 1895. He secured practical experience in the St. Louis City Hospital after which he took up the practice of medicine at Mineral, Ill. After practicing for four years in Stark County he came to Princeton in 1901, where he continued his practice until the time of his death. In 1904 Dr. Malm was elected to the office of county coroner on the Republican ticket and filled the office of coroner so efficiently that the voters of Bureau County reelected him after the expiration of every four year term. Following the Cherry mine disaster he spent the remainder of that winter at Cherry and assisted in removing mine victims and holding inquests for them. Dr. Malm possessed a kind and congenial disposition and won a large host of friends throughout the county, which was evidenced by his repeated victories in county politics. Besides serving the county as coroner, he also served as probation officer for many years.
> He was never married and out of a family of ten sisters and brothers, he leaves only one sister, Mrs. Anna Lundquist, to mourn his passing. The other eight sisters and brothers having preceded him in death.
> Funeral services were held Friday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Anna Lundquist, 411 W. Putnam Street. Mrs. E.T. Peters sang two songs, "Jesus Savior Pilot Me" and "No Night There." Pastor E.T. Peters officiated and preached on I Cor. 15: 20-22. Interment was made in Oakland Cemetery.

It is difficult to know where the newspaper obtained the information regarding the number of children in Dr. Malm's family. The newspaper indicates there were ten children in Dr. Malm's family. However, Bengta Malm only had seven children.

DR. MALM FOUND DEAD IN OFFICE BY POLICE CHIEF

Constables May Serve At Inquests Until Successor Is Named By-Supervisors.

BULLETIN

It was announced yesterday afternoon that the board of supervisors will meet in special session here on Friday, Dec. 22, for the purpose of appointing a coroner to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Dr. Malm. Friends of Dr. A. E. Owens of Princeton, one of the oldest practicing physicians in Bureau county, have suggested that he become a candidate for the appointment.

The sudden death of Dr. A. H. Malm, who succumbed to an attack of heart trouble in his office here some time Wednesday afternoon, leaves a vacancy in the office of coroner which, under the law, may be filled by an appointment by the county board of supervisors. Such appointee, according to State's Attorney Josef T. Skinner is authorized to serve until the next county election, which will be next November. In the event that no appointment is made by the county board, constables are empowered to act until the vacancy is filled.

The county board was in session here yesterday, but adjourned about the time that Dr. Malm is believed to have died. The next regular meeting of the board will not be held until April, 1934, and so it will be necessary to convene in special session should an immediate appointment be favored. Unless the meeting is held the inquisitions will be conducted by duly qualified constables.

Funeral services for the late coroner will be held from the home of a sister, Mrs. Anna Lundquist, 411 West Putnam street, this afternoon at 2 o'clock. The Rev. Mr. Peters will be in charge.

Dr. Malm's body was discovered lying upon a couch in the reception room of his office, American House block, by Chief of Police Swengle, when the latter sought to investigate the reason why Dr. Malm could not be located for an inquest in Buda. Earl Taylor, Buda undertaker, had attempted to reach the coroner, and when he was unable to do so, he called upon Chief Swengle for assistance. When the chief visited the office, he found the door ajar, and Mr. Malm's body cold in death.

The doctor had not been well for some time, and his attending physician testified at the inquest that death was due to heart trouble.

Dr. Malm, who had served continuously since 1904 as coroner and probation officer, was born in Princeton township on August 20, 1868. He acquired his education in the district and city schools in Princeton and received his professional training in the Barnes University at St. Louis from which institution he graduated in 1895. He secured practical experience in the St. Louis City hospital after which he located in Mineral. Later he practised for four years in Stark County and then came to Princeton in 1901 and opened an office. Three years later Dr. Malm was elected to the office of coroner on the Republican ticket and it was a tribute to his popularity as an official that he was re-elected every four years from that time until the present. Dr. Malm's biggest assignment as coroner came at the time of the Cherry mine disaster. Shortly after that tragedy occurred he moved to Cherry and made his home there for the remainder of the winter, assisting with the removal of the victims and holding inquests for them.

Dr. Malm was a member of the Presbyterian church and of the Modern Woodmen, and was a lifelong and loyal member of the Republican party. He never married and his only surviving close relative is a sister, Mrs. Anna Lundquist, who lives on West Putnam street in Princeton.

To the Heirs of A. H. Malm, deceased

Dear Sir or Madam:

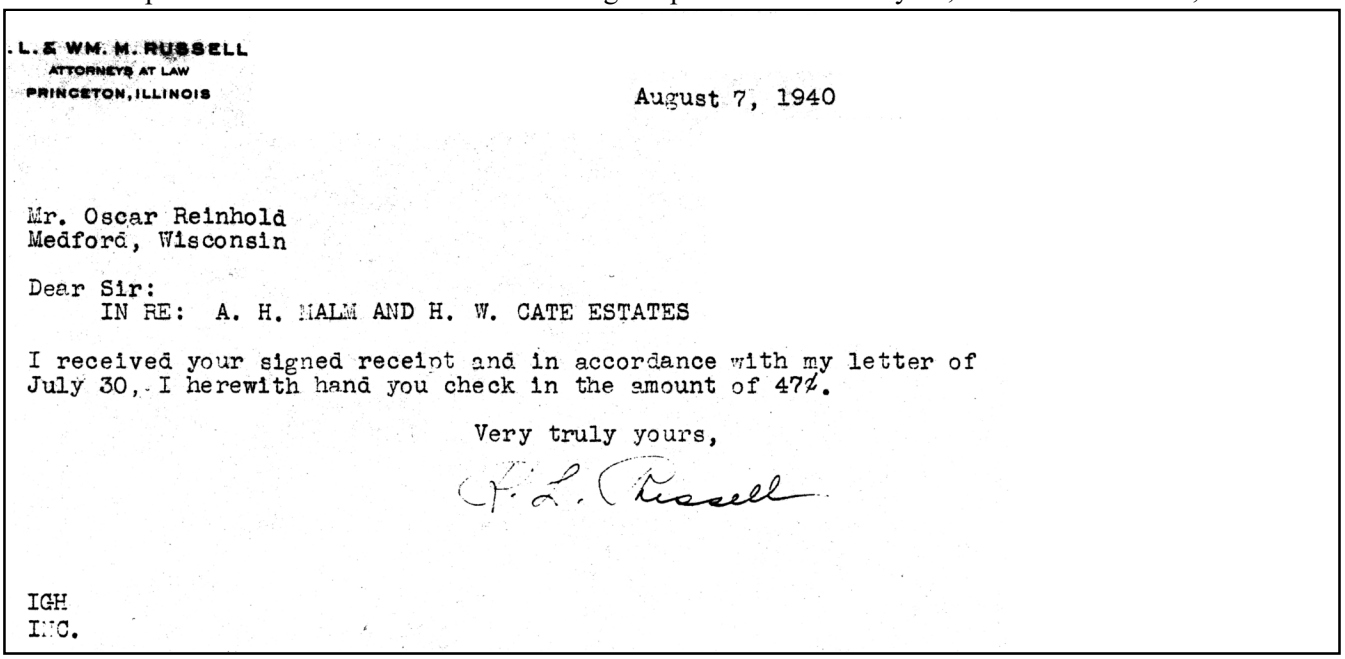

In his lifetime Dr. Malm as coroner held an inquest over the body of H. W. Cate, deceased, and filed a claim against Mr. Cate's Estate for his services in the amount of $16.00. The Cate Estate is in the process of administration and we hope to settle it in a short time. Dr. Malm is now dead and left no will. The $16.00 due him goes to his heirs. We have done our best to figure out what each one gets and inclosed you will find a receipt for the portion that we have figured justly belongs to you, there being twenty-seven heirs. Kindly sign the receipt and return the same to me and I will send you check for the amount due you.

Very truly yours,

R. L. Russell

307 Letter to Dr. Malm's heirs from R.L. and Wm. M. Russell dated July 30, 1940.

Each of his heirs received a check for 47¢.[308] The 47¢ appears to be in addition to the distributive share paid to each of Dr. Malm's heirs as shown in the Administrator's or Executor's Report for Dr. Malm's Estate and covering the period from January 18, 1934 to October 14, 1935.[309] According to R.L. WM. M. Russell, Attorneys at Law, Dr. Malm had twenty-seven heirs.[310] Only twenty-one heirs are identified and paid a distributive share in the Administrator's or Executor's Report for Dr. Malm's Estate and covering the period from January 18, 1934 to October 14, 1935.[311]

DR. I. M. ANDERSON

Dr. Isaac Morene Anderson, 83, former professor of the Greek language and literature at Augustana college, died Thursday morning at his home at 2900 Twenty-second-and-half avenue, Rock Island. He made his home with a daughter, Mrs. Milton H. Scheuerman. Dr. Anderson was a member of the Augustana college faculty nearly 40 years.

The funeral service will be held at 2:30 p. m. Saturday at St. John's Lutheran church in Rock Island. Burial will be in Rock Island Memorial Park cemetery. The family has requested that no flowers be sent but instead friends may send money to the Augustana Chapel Memorial fund or to St. John's Lutheran church.

DR. I. M. ANDERSON'S OBITUARY
JANUARY 11, 1952.

Aaron and Ellen Anderson appear on the 1860 Census.[328] Aaron was 30 years old and Ellen was 29.[329] They had one child: Johanna who was 7 months old.[330] Aaron's occupation is listed as cabinetmaker.[331] The Census indicates Aaron and Ellen were born in Sweden and Johanna was born in Illinois.[332] At the time the Census was taken, Aaron and Ellen were living in Princeton, Illinois.[333]

Aaron and Elna Anderson are not found on the 1870 Census for Princeton and Wyanet Townships, Bureau County, Illinois.[334] This could be due to the fact that 5-10% of the names on the Census cannot be read because the ink has faded so badly on the original copy.[335]

Aaron and Ellen Anderson appear on the 1880 Census for Princeton with three of their children.[336] Aaron is 50, Ellen 49, Johanna (spelled Hanna) age 20, Helena (spelled Ellen) age 17 and Isaac (spelled Ira M.) age12.[337] Aaron's occupation is listed as cabinetmaker and Ellen is shown as a housekeeper.[338] The Census indicates that Aaron, Ellen and their parents were born in Sweden, while the Anderson children were born in Illinois.[339]

On April 1, 1887, shortly after Elna's mother died, Aaron Anderson and Elna Henriksdotter moved from Princeton to Red Wing, Minnesota[340] where they are buried in Oakwood Cemetery, Red Wing, Minnesota.[341] Helena also moved from Princeton to Red Wing on April 1, 1887, and Isaac Morene moved to Red Wing on April 29, 1887.[342] Johanna moved from Princeton to Sabyland, Wisconsin.[343] Later, in 1884, Gustaf Rast married Joanna.[344] They eventually lived in Pepin County, Wisconsin.[345]

Isaac Morene Anderson was Aaron and Elna Anderson's only son. Dr. Isaac Morene Anderson died at his home in Rock Island, Illinois on January 10, 1952.[346] His obituary was carried in the Galesbury Register Mail on January 11, 1952. The Augustana Observer published an article about Dr. Anderson in its November 14, 1940 issue. The article says in part that.

> Dr. Anderson has been teaching since 1893, when he began his career at Red Wing Seminary. He taught at a sister school, Gustavus Adolphus college, from 1895 to 1904, at which time he came to Augustana as a professor of Greek and has held that position ever since except for an interval of two years in 1913 and 1914. Dr. Anderson is a graduate of Augustana college and received not only his A.B. degree here but also his B.S. and A.M. degrees. He has done graduate study at Harvard, Chicago and Wisconsin, and holds his Litt. D. degree from Gustavus Adolphus college, where he is held in the greatest esteem.

346 "Dr. I. M.Anderson's Obituary," Galesbury Register Mail, January 11, 1952; Sandra (Lundquist) Combs obtained Isaac Morene Anderson's death date by calling St. John's Lutheran Church in Rock Island, Illinois were his funeral services were held.

Students Appreciate Contact With Dr. I. M. Anderson In Classes

He Places Strong Emphasis Upon Christian Living

By Arthur Holmer

"Popular belief on the average college or university campus has the Greek professor and his students pretty well tangled up in the dusty cobwebs of antiquity and far removed from the fast-moving present. In jokes and puns the Greek professor has long been the stock example of the height of dry intellectuality. This popular conception of the place of Greek in modern education made me dread the two years of Greek which were required for the degree I sought. If any one had told me that I was going to end up by majoring in Greek and actually loving it as a study, I would have told them in no uncertain terms that they were just plain crazy." This quotation is from the opening paragraph of a tribute paid to Dr. Anderson by Myron Lindblom at the time of Dr. Anderson's 70th birthday. It is typical of the attitude of all who have taken Greek under Dr. I. M. Anderson. Regardless of their attitude when starting the study of Greek, all students finish the course with a deep appreciation of the treasures of Greek, and with an even deeper appreciation of the opportunity they have had to come into personal contact with Dr. Anderson. Beneath what appears to be a stern exterior, Dr. Anderson carries a warm and loving heart, and it is typical to hear his students say, "We give our Greek first importance not from fear, but from love."

Dr. Anderson has been teaching since 1893, when he began his career at Red Wing Seminary. He taught at a sister school, Gustavus Adolphus college, from 1895 to 1904, at which time he came to Augustana as a professor of Greek and has held that position ever since except for an interval of two years in 1913 and 1914. Adolphus college, where he is held in the greatest esteem.

Dr. Anderson is more than a Greek teacher. He is like a father to his students. Many times during the year time is taken out from regular assignments to give his students fatherly advice not only concerning school activities but also in relation to their everyday lives. Dr. Anderson places a strong emphasis on Christian living in his heart to heart talks with his students. This excellent counselling accompanied by his sterling Christian example creates an impression upon the students that is not soon forgotten.

Dr. Anderson follows the activities of our teams closely and is one of their best supporters. He likes to see a student perform well first in the classroom but also takes pleasure in seeing him do well in other fields of interest.

Dr. Anderson is the second oldest professor on our campus in years of service to Augustana and it is the earnest wish of all who know him that his services may continue for

ISAAC MORENE ANDERSON

A Christian Plato

DR. ANDERSON would probably object to the above superscription, since to him Plato was a philosopher and teacher of highest rank, in fact, his favorite Greek author, an exponent of truth in close affinity with Christianity, albeit not reaching that high level. At any rate, his students like to think of Augustana's Greek professor of the years 1904-1944 as a Christian Plato, and as a man of pure moral principles and sound Christian faith. His loyalty and love for the Church also none could question, and as a young friend suggested, had Plato and Socrates lived now, "I.M." would have invited them to come to church and hear about Christ. Perhaps he would have engaged them in a detailed argument and discussion of the merits of the Christian faith and presented each of them with a copy of the Greek New Testament. They, in turn, would have marveled at the linguistic ability of this American scholar, and would have recognized his gift as a teacher.

However, Professor Anderson was not only a great teacher, but a fearless champion of the "faith of our fathers." How often in public discussion or in private conversation he would ask the question, "What was it that the founders of our synod had in mind when they established our church colleges? Was it not the building up and perpetuation of the Lutheran faith? Are we living up to this ideal and purpose? Is it not our sacred duty to do so?"

What must his background and early environment have been to make him such a champion, and to make of him such a sturdy character!

Isaac Morene Anderson was born at Princeton, Illinois, April 30, 1868. His father was Aaron Anderson, born in Hallands län, Sweden, and his mother, Elna Hendrickson, born in Christianstad län, Träne by Skåne. They were married in Princeton, and to them were born four children, the daughters Joanna, Helena, and Hilma, all now dead, and the son, Isaac Morene Anderson.

Aaron Anderson came to America in 1854, landed in Boston, came to Illinois, worked for a time in La Salle, and then moved to Princeton. Here he promptly joined the Swedish Lutheran Church, which was organized in 1854. When Dr. Olof Olsson solicited funds in the 80's for the building of Old Main, Aaron Anderson supported him. In an argument with a friend, who maintained that a church college was not needed and that a high school was enough, Aaron Anderson advocated the opposite view. To this discussion, it may well be imagined, his young son listened with eager ears.

Aaron Anderson reached the age of 76 years when he passed away at Red Wing, Minn., January 24, 1905. The son, who was now a teacher at Augustana College, pays him a beautiful tribute: "As I looked upon his calm and serene features as he lay in his coffin, my heart was filled with thankfulness to God for a father who from my earliest years had taught me always to fear God and keep His Commandments, emphasizing uprightness and honesty. This teaching backed by a life remarkably consistent with it, made a profound and lasting impression upon me."

348 Sebelius, p. 15-22.

A year earlier his mother had passed away, and what he says of her is worth reading and remembering: "How dear she was! When I was a little child she taught me to say, if any one asked me whose child I was, 'Jag är Guds barn' (I am God's child). She used to sing a great deal as she went about her household duties, and many are the beautiful verses from our glorious old Swedish hymns that I learned from hearing her singing them. They are fondly embedded in my heart and memory yet, and will be as long as memory endures. What a heritage for a mother to bequeath to her child! God be praised for the mother He gave me."

A time of revival was experienced at Princeton during the boyhood days of I. M. Anderson. It accompanied the pure preaching of the gospel by Pastor Johannes Wikstrand. One of the seekers after salvation who then found peace with God was Gustaf Rast, who was later ordained and in 1884 married I. M. Anderson's sister Joanna. It was Pastor Rast who encouraged young Anderson to get an education.

Professor Anderson is deeply conscious of his obligation to Pastor Rast. When he was only half way through high school, he had wanted to quit and "get some job." His father objected, but might have yielded. "But here," says Professor Anderson, "my prospective brother-in-law came to my rescue. He pleaded with me to continue my studies and added to his pleading the promise of a watch upon my graduation. He won. I kept on."

Pastor Rast also secured for young Anderson a teaching position in the district and parochial schools in Pepin County, Wisconsin, where he was located. Later he urged him to go to college and loaned him money to see him through. "I shall ever with deep gratitude cherish his memory," concludes Anderson. With appreciation he mentions that the Rev. S. A. Sandahl had confirmed him in 1883.

We think of Professor Anderson surrounded by his students, as were the teachers and philosophers in Athens in the spacious courts of some public building, the youth of the land coming thither to drink from the fountain of wisdom and to return for more.

In the case of a Christian teacher, that wisdom would, of course, be superior to that of the Greeks. And the language taught would only be a means to a higher end. As Professor Harry S. B. Johnson, his successor in the Greek chair at Augustana, puts it, "He was first of all a teacher of men and then a teacher of Greek. . . . In all his relationships he was a man. He is not a man who is easily overcome by the rankings, academic or otherwise, for which ordinary men so solicitously seek, but he is completely overwrought and stands in awe of truth. He frequently recognized more depth of thought from the lips of his humble students than from the rationalized statements of supposedly intellectual men."

But the school bell is ringing at the Red Wing Seminary, Red Wing, Minnesota. We enter the classroom, and at the teacher's desk sits a young man, twenty-five years of age, tall, high of forehead, earnest looking, a Bachelor of Science graduate of Augustana College, called for two years to teach in English some of the courses in the curriculum, Norwegian then being the medium of instruction in this seminary of the Hauge Synod. Before the end of the two years, Professor Anderson was offered a permanent call but had to decline because he had already promised to assist President Mathias Wahlstrom in teaching Greek at Gustavus Adolphus College, St. Peter, Minnesota.

For nine years Anderson was a member of the Gustavus faculty, assisting Dr. Wahlstrom in teaching Greek for two years, and having full charge of the department the remaining seven years. While a student at Augustana he had not stressed Greek, but "had added Greek as an extra subject to my regular program, which was to fulfill requirements for the B.S. degree. So naturally, when I undertook to teach Greek, I was well aware that it meant a great deal of hard and continued study. Prof. C. L. E. Esbjorn had once said that anything you work at good and hard, you will come to like. This proved true in my new job."

In a personal interview, the professor explained that when he began teaching Greek at Augustana in 1904, the view commonly prevailed that only a genius was qualified to study Greek. "I made it a point to dispel that false notion and believe that I succeeded."

Prior to his return to Augustana, Dr. Anderson had attended a number of university summer schools, Harvard (1894), the University of Chicago (1900, 1901), and the University of Wisconsin (1903). At the University of Chicago he took courses under famous men like Goodspeed and Caspar René Gregory, the great Leipzig scholar.

Dr. Anderson's experience at the University of Wisconsin, where he studied Greek under Prof. Charles Forster Smith, must have strengthened his sense of self-reliance as well as enriched his knowledge in the fields of teaching and of Greek lore. One humorous classroom incident illustrates this point. Listen to the Augie professor relate the incident. "One day Dr. Smith asked me to read a passage from the Greek text of Thucydides. I did, and he seemed to like it. He asked me if I had practiced reading the passage. I replied that I had not, but that I sometimes, while preparing my lesson, spoke the words out loud. 'Where did you get your Greek?' he asked. 'At Augustana College, Rock Island,' I answered. 'Well, why didn't you tell me that before? I would have had more respect for you. I thought you had received your Greek from the University of Minnesota!' He inferred this from the fact that I had written him from St. Peter in advance of my coming to Madison."

We enter the Greek room at Augustana. The teacher's desk has been moved from the south to the east end of the room, from which point of vantage the master gets a straight look at the disciples as they enter the door. They will remember his scrutinizing look, but above all, his voice and his gestures and his movements, at times from desk to desk, till the end of life. One of the students, now the superintendent of a Conference Home for the Aged in Chicago, writes: "He was a school master with a dignity and dynamic that made us tremble and do our best to learn."

As to the spiritual and moral value of the classroom work of this teacher, Rev. Linus A. Herman offers this appraisal: "My estimate of Professor Anderson is based upon the influence he exerted on my entire life from the day I first met him. He taught me to love the Greek language, but I would never have loved it had it not been for the teacher who taught it. He taught you a great deal more than Greek.

He aroused within you a desire, not only to be a good student, but to be a good man, a manly man like the professor himself. Not that he ever sought to set himself up as an example to follow, but he led you to the fountains where he himself had imbibed both knowledge and wisdom. It was good to be with him there. The great thoughts of the Greek writers and philosophers were always evaluated in the light of divine revelation. In his courses in New Testament Greek, he 'opened to us the Scriptures,' as he analyzed grammatical constructions and unfolded the meaning of the words. How eminently he would have filled the New Testament chair in the Seminary."

One of the younger students, Harold V. Faust, offers this tribute: "But above all, even beyond the respect for accurate scholarship, Dr. Anderson endeared himself to his students by his frequent digressions—I hesitate to use that word—to share some truth that had come to him out of the Word of God. We thank God for men like that who represent scholarship and understanding, but above all we thank God for men who bear their Christian testimony into the classroom. Needless to say, it was more than Greek paradigms that came to us from that classroom on the first floor of Old Main."

On scores of occasions Professor Anderson has appeared as guest speaker at many Luther League conventions, at several Reformation festivals, at college commencements, at Brotherhood meetings, and at Lutheran Student services. On at least one occasion he served as preacher before a large outdoor congregation in Longview Park, Rock Island. One of the hearers, then a student and now a pastor in a large city, reports, "He preached on the words of Jesus in Matthew 16. 26, 'What shall it profit a man if he gain the whole world and lose his own soul?' That sermon must have had something in it which was meant for me, and there must have been something about the delivery and the sincerity of the preacher which made it stick in my soul. Since then I have heard that this man has been 'hard on preachers,' and this may be true, but I still think of him as having preached one of the best sermons I ever heard."

The Red River Valley Conference enjoyed his presence

there in 1919, when he spoke first at the convention in Warren, Minnesota, and later at the Commencement at North Star College. Rev. P. G. Carlstedt, who was then a member of that conference and heard the addresses of his former teacher, whom he describes in terms of high appreciation, adds a personal note. "After the address at North Star College, which was very impressive and not as involved with Greek sentence structures as the lectures he gave at Augustana, I could not but tell him how I felt, ashamed of myself to think that I did not amount to any more than I did after having had him as a teacher so many years. He answered me, 'I can understand what you mean, for that is the way I felt after having had Dr. Williamson for my teacher."

Dr. Anderson attended twenty conventions of the Synod as delegate, at ten of these as a member of the Synodical Council. He was also a member of several boards: the Augustana Book Concern Board, 1906-27, the China Mission Board the Augustana Pension and Aid Fund, the Students' Aid Fund, and the Students' Foreign Missionary Society. At the synodical convention in 1919 at Lindsborg, Kansas, he was made a member of the committee to revise the constitution of the Synod. In 1913-14 he served as assistant in the Actuarial Department and treasurer of the Mutual Trust Life Insurance Company, Chicago, Illinois. But Augustana College would not let him stay in Chicago. He belonged in Rock Island.

Dr. Anderson has been married twice. His first wife was a Minnesota girl, Dagny Marie Dahl, whom he married in 1898. She passed away in April 1901. On July 20, 1904, he married another Minnesota girl, Miss Susie I. Strauch of St. Peter, Minnesota. That his choice was good, the sequence has proved. It is a delight to visit the Anderson home. They have three children, Leroy Paul, Lois Florence (Mrs. Milton H. Scheuerman), and Grace Helena (Mrs. W. J. Malone). The Andersons are members of St. John's Lutheran Church, Rock Island.

May we quote parts of a letter from Dr. Bergendoff:

"Now on Sundays I see him occasionally at church, bent a little, but yet giving the impression of uprightness. He is thin and aged, he walks slowly, but when he speaks there in a firm, convincing voice, and his gaze meets your eyes unflinchingly.

"But each time I see him I lose the view of the present environment. The 'I. M.' I've known these thirty years and more fitted most naturally into the classroom. . . . 'I. M.' was a great teacher, for students grew in his classes. He knew English as well as Greek, and once in awhile he took us on a Swedish by-path. Clarity, distinctness, forthrightness were qualities that came to mean more to those who studied with him. But beyond that, there was an uprightness that characterized his own tall frame, his sharply-lined features, his certain, steady gait. He would stand for no deceit, or dubiousness, or excuses. Sometimes he may have been too emphatic when all the evidence was not in, and one sometimes would have appreciated a flight into the imaginative. But 'I. M.' was firm, and he wanted the student to be sure when he was right. For that exemplification of 'an Israelite indeed in whom is no guile' I am grateful, and I revere the memory of this teacher as one of my mental and spiritual treasures."

Years have passed, and a large audience is gathered in the college auditorium to listen to Handel's "Messiah" under the direction of Professor Henry Veld. It was a privilege to sit next to Dr. Anderson in the gallery far back. He evidently knew the words and music by heart, for he was singing in a low bass voice some of the major passages. We arose for the "Hallelujah" chorus as is customary. But when the 300 singers rose for "Worthy Is the Lamb That Was Slain," Dr. Anderson leaned over and whispered, "This is the mighty climax," and his own soul rose in solemn, joyful worship as he intoned the sacred words:

"Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive the power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honor, and glory, and blessing. Unto Him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb, be the blessing, and the honor, and the glory, and the dominion, for ever and ever."
